Villas in Calabria - Booking Terms and Conditions

1 Contract of Hire

The property known as "1 Case Rosse, Bonifati, Calabria" is offered for holiday rental on behalf of the owners Nicholas and Lynne Stuart (later referred to as the owners) to the renter (the Client) named as the party leader on the booking form. All bookings are accepted by the owners and are subject to these conditions, which are deemed to have been accepted in full by the client and all persons in the party.

2 Confirmation

Confirmation of booking is only confirmed on receipt of your deposit, as stated in clause 3 below.

3 Payment

A deposit of 50% of the total villa rental cost is payable with the booking form. Confirmation of booking/deposit receipt/invoice will be sent by post as soon as the deposit cheque is cleared and will state the balance due date. The balance is to be paid eight weeks prior to departure plus a security retainer of £200 which will be refunded subject to a property inspection after vacation of the villa. See Clause 13. If the owners do not receive this payment by the balance due date specified on the deposit receipt/invoice and have no notification from the client, the booking will automatically be cancelled and the deposit retained. If the booking is made eight weeks or less before rental start date it must be accompanied by full payment. Please do not book travel arrangements until you have received confirmation of booking.

4 Cancellation by Client

All cancellations of bookings must be in writing (email is acceptable). If the owners receive notification of cancellation eight clear weeks prior to rental start date then only the deposit will be forfeited. If cancellation is less than eight clear weeks before departure then the full rental cost is to be paid as set out in clause 3.

5 What is included

The villa rental includes the cost of water, electricity, maintenance of garden. One bath towel is provided per person at the start of the rental period along with fresh bed linen. The kitchen is fully equipped with hob, oven, fridge/freezer, microwave, washing machine, dishwasher, coffee maker, iron, ironing board, crockery, and cutlery etc.

6 What is not included

7 Complaints

In the unlikely event that you have a complaint about the villa or its contents during your stay, it must be reported immediately to us by calling +44 (0)7973 194 550. Neither the owners nor their representatives shall have any liability for any complaint submitted after the booking period.

8 Occupancy

The villa will be ready for occupancy from 3pm on the rental start date and must be vacated by 10.00am on the rental end date. Variations on this are subject to availability.

9 Maximum Number of Persons

Under no circumstances may more than the maximum number of persons specified in the villa description or booking form occupy the villa except by prior written agreement. The villa cannot be re-let/sublet to any other group/party without the written approval of the owners. The owners and their local representatives reserve the right to refuse admittance to the villa to the client and their party if they are in breach of any of these conditions.

10 Clients' Responsibilities

The client is responsible for taking all reasonable care of the property and its contents. The property and all equipment, utensils, furniture, etc., must be left clean and tidy at the end of the rental period. The client shall ensure that no member of the party engages in any activity which may cause offence to neighbours – this includes unacceptable anti-social behaviour. The client should also ensure that all rubbish is bagged and placed in the municipal dustbin located at the top of the hill. Finally, we politely ask the client to ensure no item at all is removed from the villa during the rental period.

11 Insurance

The villa rental cost does not include any personal insurance cover of any kind. It is strongly recommended that you take out insurance cover for you and your party against holiday cancellation, personal accident and medical insurance.

Neither the owners nor their representatives can be held responsible for any circumstances beyond their control including, but not limited to, mechanical breakdown, illness or failure of any public service supply including water and electricity or any amenities out of the owners' control, including any failure impacting on the availability of the communal swimming pool. However, every effort will be made by the owners or their representatives to rectify the problem, acting on the clients' behalf. The client responsible for booking undertakes that no person will suffer anything to be done which would endanger the policy of the owner's insurers in respect of the villa and its contents, which might make the same void or voidable.

15 Injury and Damage

The owners and their representatives will not accept any liability for personal injury, death, loss or damage to personal effects and motor vehicles to the client or any member of the party arising from the provision of letting the accommodation.

16 Force Majeure

The owners regret that they cannot accept liability or pay compensation where the performance of our contractual obligations is prevented or affected by 'force majeure'. In these Terms and Conditions 'force majeure' means any event which we or the supplier of the service(s) in question could not, even with due care, foresee or avoid. Such events may include, but are not limited to, war, threat of war, civil commotion or strife, hostilities, strikes or other industrial disputes, natural disasters, fire, acts of God, terrorist activities, technical problems, with transportation, closure of ports and ferries, quarantine, epidemics, weather conditions, government action or other events outside the owners control.

17 Cancellation by the Owners

In the unlikely event that the owners have to cancel the clients' booking, the full villa rental cost will be refunded. Any refund will be restricted to villa rental cost and the owners are not liable for any cancellation charges for travel arrangements, etc.
